HUBERT MORRIS DROWNED IN NEUSE RIVER ON SUNDAY

Well Known Greensboro Young Man
Meets Death Near Newbern
While Swimming With Companion, Who is Drowned Also—Bodies Not Recovered.

Hubert Morris, the 22-year-old son of J. C. Morris, the well-known building contractor of this city, was drowned Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock while swimming in the Neuse River at a place called Wilkerson's Point 15 miles from New Bern. The information was received here by the father of the deceased in a short and incomplete telegram about 9 o'clock Sunday night, that simply stated that his son had been drowned and the presence of Mr. Morris was desired immediately.

The numerous friends of young Morris located throughout this city and vicinity were horrified by the terrible news. Particulars of the affair were difficult to obtain, but by a long distance telephone message Mr. Morris ascertained that the body of the drowned boy had not been found. Accordingly, he left shortly after midnight yesterday morning for the scene of the accident.

Hubert, following the footsteps of his father, has become a contractor and builder, and at the time of his death he was in New Bern in the capacity of superintendent in the work of contracting the home of J. B. Blades. With several acquaintances young Morris formed a boating party for an outing for the afternoon. When off Wilkerson's Point he decided to take a swim with a companion, J. J. Wiley, of New Bern. Both entered the water, which at that point has an exceptionally swift and treacherous current. Neither of the boys was an able swimmer and both were speedily exhausted by the strength of the current. They sank in practically the same spot before aid could reach either from the boat, none of the occupants of which would swim.

At a late hour the bodies of the unfortunate victims had not been located despite the desperate efforts of searchers. The Greensboro boy, who thus so suddenly and shockingly taken from the midst of his many friends, is well known and popular throughout the city. Young Morris has lived here the majority of his life during his growth from boyhood to early and promising manhood. His parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the people of Greensboro, and scores of friends in the city and county are saddened because of his death.

MEADS, ALLEGED BRIBER, UNDER A HEAVY BOND.

Columbus, O., June 12.—J. C. Meads, of Cleveland, indicted for offering a bribe in connection with the loan shark bill, which passed the recent Legislature, appeared in common pleas court today and gave bond for one thousand dollars. Carl Ruth, a newspaper correspondent of Cleveland, was today cited to contempt. He is charged with having published the names of the men, indicted in connection with the legislative bribery before the men had appeared to answer to the indictments.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT WILL BE ENDED TODAY

In Superior Court yesterday the day was occupied by the case of H. F. Starr vs. the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company in a suit for the recovery of damages to the extent of $15,000. The speeches of the attorneys for both the plaintiff and defendant were delivered, with the exception that Judge W. P. Bynum was interrupted by the adjournment of court and his speech for the plaintiff will be completed this morning. Then will follow the charge of Judge Daniels, and the case is expected to be given to the jury about noon today.

Baptized With Jordan Water.
Nutley, N. J., June 12.—Children were baptized with water from the river Jordan at the Vincent Methodist church yesterday. The water was brought from the holy land by Miss Helen Wilson, of Newark.

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLAR FIRE IN APEX YESTERDAY

Business Section of Wake Town Gutted by Flames—One Fatal Injury.

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 12.—The thriving town of Apex, eight miles from Raleigh where the Southern and Seaboard Air Line railroads come together for a parallel run to Raleigh, suffered a fifty thousand dollar fire this morning that well nigh wiped out the business section of the town and was the cause of one fatal injury.

Graham Herring, an Apex young man serving as telegraph operator at New Hill, saw the fire at his home town and attempted to board a passing freight train going to Apex. The train was moving at a good speed when he went to swing himself on to a car and he lost his hold and fell under the train, one leg being ground off under the wheels, a fracture of the skull, and other injuries sustained from which there is no possibility of his recovery, according to statements made from Rex Hospital here where he is being treated.

The fire started about one o'clock this morning in some old frame buildings owned by the Apex Land Company and occupied by J. W. Jinks, produce and meat market and Smith's barber shop. It was insisted that there had been no fire in either place for some time and there are those who claim incendiary origin for the fire without any direct clues to guilty parties. The fire spread rapidly to buildings occupied by the Merchants and Farmers' Bank, H. C. Olive & Co., W. H. Harward Co., the Baucom drug store, the store of R. J. Bolling and the residence of S. V. Hudson, postmaster. The town is without water system and the people devoted their effort mostly to getting goods and furnishings out of buildings as they became endangered. The biggest mercantile stock burned was Harwood & Co., $10,000. In the bank everything was gotten out that was not protected by the time lock vault. Most of the losses were fairly well protected by insurance except the old buildings of the Apex Land and Investment Company in which the fire started. The insurance on these expired very recently and were not renewed because they were to be torn down to give place to new buildings.

SUPERVISOR OF S. S. WORK IN COUNTY ELECTED

At a meeting of the central committee of the Guilford County Sunday School Association in the McAdoo hotel Sunday afternoon Rev. Shuford Peeler was elected as general supervisor of Sunday school work in the county, this being in addition to his duties as county secretary.

Rev. Mr. Peeler will put forth particular efforts to organize the townships, teacher training classes and organized classes, the idea being to have organized classes and teacher training classes in each Sunday school in the county.

It was also decided to hold if possible a township convention in every township during the months of June, July and August. July 9 was decided upon as Sunday School Day, on which time each school in the county will be asked to have special exercises looking to the promotion of the work throughout the county.

A Wayland Cooke tendered his resignation as president of the county association, stating that his legal work was so binding upon him that he could not give to the office the attention that should receive. The resignation was accepted and Rev. J. W. Long, pastor of Spring Garden Street Methodist church, was elected as Mr. Cooke's successor.

Father as Well as Mother Now Has His Day; It Will Be Observed on the Third Sunday In June.

I wonder in all that is written and told
Of the wonderful love of a mother
Why the fatherly heart is left out
In the cold
When each is but part of the other.

Perchance, if the children could only be heard,
Full many a lassie and laddie
Would tell us a story whose emphasized word Stands out in the loving "dear
daddy."

—Clara Griffith Gazzam.

Mrs. John Bruce Dodd of Spokane has the distinction of originating "fathers' day." For some years "children's day" and "mothers' day" have been celebrated, but father had been neglected until Mrs. Dodd started the movement in his behalf, which has extended to all parts of America, Canada, Mexico and even Honolulu. The occasion will be observed this year on June 18. Special sermons in father's honor will be preached in churches. It is suggested that a red rose be worn in honor of living fathers and a white one in memory of those who have passed away.

DR. LONG LECTURES TO TEACHERS AT A. & M. COLLEGE

The second week of the summer school at A. & M. College begins with the record-breaking attendance of eighty nine teachers.

The lecture course is well under way. Prof. Fleming, superintendent of public instruction of Alamance county, will deliver a series of lectures on Hamilton's Recitation, the first of which was delivered yesterday afternoon. He will lecture each day this week from 2:15 to 3:15.

Last night, at 8:30, Dr. J. W. Long delivered a very instructive and helpful lecture on "The House Fly." In treating his subject, Dr. Long called attention to the fact that at one time the house fly was regarded as nothing more than a nuisance, but not he is regarded as a real pest which carries death and disease around on his legs and wings, as is being demonstrated by scientific methods. He gave statistics which showed that a large per cent. of such diseases as typhoid fever, summer complaints, consumption, etc., could be directly traceable to the fly. He also spoke of a disease which is known as "epidemic cerebro spinal meningitis" that is now thought to be carried from one person to another by the house fly.

Dr. Long laid stress upon the breeding places of the fly and told how to get rid of him by removing filth and by screening doors and windows, using fly paper, etc.

More dangerous, said he, is the house fly than is the rattlesnake, the tiger or the lion and intelligent people should get rid of him.

Today the Colored State Teachers' Association will begin a four days session at the college, which, however, will not interfere with the regular schedule of the summer school.

First Bale Brings Big Price.
Houston, Tex., June 12.—The first bale of new cotton was sold at auction here today, bringing the remarkable price of $1.015. The bale was purchased by J. H. Jones, of Houston.

COMMISSIONER BROWN CUSTODIAN OF LARGE SUM FOR THE CITY

Settlement of Aldermen With City Discloses Splendid Financial Condition—More Than Hundred Thousand Dollars in Hand And Turned Over to Brown.

The settling committee, composed of T. A. Glascock and J. Ed. Albright, appointed by the Board of Aldermen to make a settlement with the various city officers and turn the funds over to the Board of Commissioners, has completed its work, the report being made at yesterday afternoon's session of the Board of Commissioners.

The showing made by the city is quite a creditable one. The assets of the city on May 1, the beginning of the fiscal year, were $1,017,089.29 and the liabilities $860,000.00, leaving a difference of $157,089.29 in the city's favor.

The report shows that on May 1, 1910, there was a balance of $58,747.53. The revenues received from all sources during the year were $196,981, making a total fund of $255,728.53 available during the year.

The total expenses during the year were $190,125.92, leaving a balance of $65,602.61 on hand. In addition to this there was a balance of $34,748.38 of the Water & Light Commission funds. These amounts, together with an amount to cover outstanding warrants and $4,927.80 of the perpetual care fund of Greene Hill cemetery made a total of $107,692.21, which was turned over to Treasurer Brown.

The report also shows that in addition to the revenues mentioned above there is due and collectable the sum of $7,080 in rents and $18,000 for the Elm street paving.

MEMORIAL SERVICE OF FIREMEN WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

The memorial service of the Greensboro Fire Department was held Sunday morning at West Market Street Methodist church, at which time Rev. E. K. McLarty, the pastor, preached a most inspiring sermon. During the past year not a single member of the fire department had died so the service was confined to the sermon and a program of appropriate music by the church choir.

The minister spoke of the unselfish service of the fireman, often risking his life in an effort to save the property and lives of others. He declared that the firemen were fulfilling the law of life as exemplified by Christ himself when they forgot self and worked to relieve the sufferings of others. True happiness was, he said, the great aim of human endeavor and this can come only by self sacrifice and assistance to others.

The firemen attended the service in a body, marching from the hall of the Steamer Company to the church. A large audience was present to hear the sermon and Dr. McLarty was given close attention throughout the entire discourse.

TWO ELECTROCUTED

YESTERDAY IN SING SING
Ossing, N. Y., June 12.—Two men were put to death in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison this morning. Frederick Gebhardt, convicted of killing Annie Luther in the woods at East Islip, L. I., in April, 1908, was executed first. Gebhardt committed bigamy in marrying Miss Luther that he might get her money.

Thomas Barnes, a yeggman, known as "Bangor Billy," who shot Jack Leonard because of the latter's promise to aid officers in breaking up a band of yeggmen, was put to death second.

FRUIT CROP IN STATE WILL BE SHORT THIS YEAR

According to Prospectus
Just Issued by Horticulturalist W. N.
Hutt.

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 12.—State Horticulturalist W. N. Hutt has just prepared a final prospectus on the fruit crop in North Carolina in which he estimates the apple crop at 33 per cent.; the peach crop at 15 per cent.; the pear crop at only 8 per cent.; plums, 25 per cent.; cherries, 31 per cent.; grapes at 73 per cent. This estimate is based on 54 local reports from 67 counties. He finds the best apple crops in Watauga, Avery and Yancey counties. He finds the crop of apples around Asheville, Waynesville, and in the Bushy Mountain region something like from one-third to one-half crop. Mr. Hutt reports that the strawberry crop in this State was practically cut in half by the drought and he estimates that the dewberry crop will be very much curtailed for the same reason.

BLIND MEN CHAMPIONS AT SHOVELING COAL

Trenton, N. J., June 12.—When George and Harry Dansbury, of 616 Second street, were stricken blind while working at wire cloth manufacture, they debated what to do, for they would not beg.

Some one suggested that they could still shovel coal, and they hired the man to lead them to the coal barge offices of Charles H. Gallagher, in this city. When told their plight and their desire to earn their living shoveling coal, Mr. Gallagher said: "Such pluck appeals to me—get to work."

The brothers have been shoveling coal three years now, and Gallagher has raised their pay three times, saying they are worth any five men he hires. They are the first blind men in the state shoveling coal for a living.

GARMENT WORKER STRIKERS WIN VICTORY IN COURT

Special to Telegram.
Cleveland, O., June 12.—The striking garment workers won a victory in court today when the seven prisoners arrested for doing picket duty were discharged. The prisoners, one of whom was Josephine Casey, the national organizer, were doing picket duty around the factories when arrested.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH AT REVOLUTION WAS DEDICATED SUNDAY

The dedication service at Palm Street Christian church, Revolution, were held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, a large congregation being present to attend the services. The dedication sermon was delivered by Dr. J. O. Atkinson, of Elon College, editor of the Christian Sun. The services were greatly enjoyed, selections by the Greensboro Male Quartet, composed of Long, Cheek, Coe and Hamilton, adding to the occasion.

Preceding the sermon by Dr. Atkinson it was announced that there was an indebtedness of $165 on the church building. This amount was subscribed in a few minutes, the total exceeding that amount when all subscriptions were in.

The church was organized about 5 years ago by Rev. L. F. Johnson. Since that time a handsome church edifice has been erected and paid for, costing in the neighborhood of $3,500. The church at present has a membership of 72 and a flourishing Sunday school of nearly a hundred and fifty. Rev. W. C. Wicker is pastor.

This week revival services are being conducted by Rev. H. F. Wolfe, of Moore county. The interest in the meeting is quite pronounced. The public cordially invited to attend each evening.

FOR ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS BY VOTE OF PEOPLE

Senate Passes Resolution Amending Constitution of United States—
Provides That Federal Government Shall Supervise Such Elections—Passed by Vote of 64 to 24

Washington, June 12.—The United States Senate this afternoon, by a vote of 64 to 24, passed a resolution amending the constitution to provide for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

The Bristow amendment, providing that the federal government shall have supervision of such elections, was adopted. The vote on the amendment was a tie, 44 to 44. Vice President Sherman casting the deciding ballot.

An amendment by Senator Bacon, qualifying the Bristow amendment so as to prohibit federal supervision of elections unless the state legislatures refuse to act, was defeated by a vote of 46 to 43.

Washington, June 12.—Today the United States senate will cast its final vote on the constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States Senators by popular vote, in accordance with an agreement reached on May 23.

Two resolutions providing for this change will come before that body, and form a poll of the members, it is safe to assume that one of the other will undoubtedly pass.

The Bristow resolution which provides simply that the constitution shall be amended to permit the election of senators by direct vote of the people, in the manner in which members of the house are now elected, will be disposed of first. It was a similar measure that suffered defeat in the closing days of the last congress, despite the fact that a majority of the senators were in favor of the principle which it embodied. The enemies of the measure, however, succeeded in alienating the support of the Southern members by pointing out that the resolutions would practically deprive the states of their control over such elections, and place this power in the hands of the national government. This caused the defeat of the measure.

The other resolution, providing for this amendment is fathered by Senator Borah, and stipulates that the respective states shall have full control over the elections at which senators shall be chosen.

The states which have demanded the adoption of a constitutional amendment providing for the direct election of senators by the people are: Arkansas, California, Minnesota, Utah, Kansas, Texas, Illinois, Indiana, South Dakota, Idaho, Washington, North Carolina, Tennessee, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri, Iowa, Oregon, Louisiana, Colorado, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Alabama, New Jersey.

Total, 29—Number of states necessary to bring about a constitutional amendment, 31.

WARE-KRAMER SUIT BEGINS THIS MORNING

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 12.—The Federal court will convene tomorrow morning for an adjourned term for the trial of the case of Ware-Kramer Tobacco Co. vs. American Tobacco Co., the $1,200,000 damage suit for the defendant having, as the plaintiff alleges, destroyed the cigarette business of the Ware-Kramer Co. It is expected that the case will require something like four weeks or longer.

STOKES' ASSAILANTS ARRAIGNED IN COURT

Special to Telegram.
New York, June 12.—The "Shooting show girls" appeared in court today, but Stokes was unable to be present and the case was continued until Wednesday. "Angel" will give bail in any amount for Ethel Conrad, but Lillian Graham's attorney claims that she cannot give bail in the sum of even $5,000. Stokes insists that he will prosecute the girls for attempted murder. Their bail was continued at $25,000.

The newspapers down in South Carolina spend so much time watching this State grow that they do not have sufficient opportunity to boost their own State.

The Times-Dispatch cannot understand why people leave Richmond in the summer. People who do not live in Richmond cannot understand why the entire population does not leave Richmond permanently.

Mexico will doubtless regard $20,- 000 per head as a big price for Chi-

in that country. The average Mexitenth as much as a first class Chinese laundryman.

the belief that South Carolina's

Texas has marketed the first bale eighteen.

There are men in the United States Senate who are, evidently, Democrats for office only. If they lived in stand-pat Republican States
they would show their true colors
all the time instead of on occasions when they have the opportunity to vote in the Senate against the interests of the majority.

The Baltimore Sun is authority for the statement that "Life is one grand, sweet boost"—in Baltimore, doubtless. Nevertheless it is a fact that life is sweeter to the booster than it can possibly be to the knocker. The booster is in harmony with the spirit of the age, while the knocker is out of tune with the times.

Charlotte News thinks Atlanta should send a delegation to this city to find out how commission government works. That would be a wise move for Atlanta and would assure the adoption of the commission in the Georgia capital, as the commission is running smoothly in Greensboro.

The wheat crop of the United States is said to be the greatest in the history of the country. This statement will probably not hold good in regard to North Carolina, however. The crop in this State must have been greatly injured by the dry weather, which prevailed at a time when the wheat was heading and making grain. If the crop escaped serious damage from this source it is a miracle of nature.

Raleigh Times does not believe the Charlotte News is enthusiastic about the North Carolina edition of the National Magazine. The reason is that a picture of W. C. Dowd was printed in the magazine and labeled
"Editor of the Charlotte Observer."
No doubt there are now two editors in Charlotte who are disposed to criticize the mistakes of the National Magazine.

The newspapers of the State are trying to have fun with Greensboro about the sale of the auditorium. It is a fact that the auditorium was found to be too large for this city's use, but it was necessary to give it a trial in order to demonstrate this fact; whereas, in the case of the other cities of the State, it has been clearly evident all along without the trial that the auditorium would be about ten sizes too large for any one of them.

"Swat the flies" is the advice of the esteemed Raleigh News and Observer. This advice is being given throughout the country, showing that the fly is no respecter of commun-ties but is busily engaged everywhere in working over time as a nuisance and a dangerous pest. Organized and systematic warfare must be conducted against the fly; otherwise, the fly wins. The warfare must be waged in the first place against the cause which produces flies. Every person who is unfamiliar with the fly and his habits should seek enlightenment and prepare to fight the fly pest intelligently, which is the only way to do it successfully.

REPRESENTATIVES SHOULD REPRESENT THE MAJORITY.

The Durham Herald wants a United States Senator for this State elected purely on his merits. This statement is of rather doubtful meaning.
North Carolina ought to have two Senators who believe in and will vote for what a majority of the people of the State want. Government of, for and by the people is based on majority rule, and the wishes of the majority of the people of this State should control and the men who represent the State in the Senate and in the Lower House should be men whose views are the views of a majority of the people.

The man whose views on public questions are not the views of a majority of the people should not be elected for personal reasons, because of personal worth, popularity, or for any other of the reasons which so often control men in casting their ballots. On the other hand, the man who well knows that his opinions are opposed by the majority and that he stands for policies and principles obnoxious to the majority should be honest with the people and not seek election, knowing that if elected he can only misrepresent the people who have called him into the public service.

Carrie Nation.

Zealous—over-zealous, in fact—Mrs.
Carrie Nation made of herself a genuine nuisance, but it must be said of her that she was genuinely in earnest. From having to live with a drunkard, she came to hate whisky and the places at which it was sold with a hatred that was deadly, and with her eyes blinded to property rights she hesitated not at all in smashing saloons right and left.

"Loud" she unquestionably was, and ill bred, probably. But we cannot judge her like we would judge the ordinary woman. She saw her duty and she did it the best she could. Her life was given up to fighting drink, and probably she caused many people to see the evils of intemperance.

We must lay on her bier the tribute
that we believed her sincere.—Winston Journal.

It Was Murder.

The representative of the Enterprise who was at the scene of the tragedy at Jamestown soon after it had been made known has thought a good deal over the situation since different reports and in-sinnuation have been sent out and printed over the state. This morning we went to Jamestown again and went over the circumstances fully again, discussing it pro and con with the family and neighbors, weighing everything well in connection with the information we already had and we are fully convinced that it was a case of murder, just as published in the Enterprise Thursday afternoon. In fact the evidence is more conclusive of murder the further the review of the evidence goes.

In the first place there is the irrefuta-ble evidence of the mother and sister who first entered the room and of Dr.
Gordon who loosened the body. Dr. Gordon's statement is that Mrs. Hill was lying perfectly straight on the floor, with her garments folded close around her to the feet, one stocking was pushed far down her throat, another stocking tied tightly around her neck. The body was fastened to the bed by two straps
one drawn around her body and hands and slipped through the bottom iron rail of the bed. This strap was not drawn tight and a conscious person could have extricated her hands, and would have done so in a struggle of strangulation.
The other strap was around the neck and drawn tight through the second iron railing from the floor. There is all evidence that Mrs. Hill was dead before she was strangled to the bed.

It is quite evident that there were two burglars. On first entering the room they overpowered her, tied the stocking around her very tight and pushed the other so far down her throat as to cause death sooner perhaps than they intended if at all. They then ransacked the bureau drawers and went through the clothing. After this it is evident they strapped the body to the bed to make sure that she would make no disturbance while they were in the house.
There is hardly any question, judging from the position of the body, that Mrs.
Hill was dead when strapped to the bed which would explode any other idea but one of murder. Again there were the two packages of silverware which was secured from the sideboard. The fact that the burglars did not take the loot away is evidence that they were frightened and jumped out of the open window and made their escape.

Whoever committed the horrible crime was after money and valuables and if they are ever caught, it will no doubt be ascertained that this was their motive. They thought that there was money there. They may not have intended to commit murder, but this makes the crime no less horrible. Almost every circumstance points to burglary and murder, so strong that everything else is far-fetched.

In a talk with Mr. Sechrest, the undertaker who dressed the body, he is certain that Mrs. Hill had been struck in the face as there was a bruise about the eye.

Under the light of these facts the authorities should leave nothing undone to find a clue.—High Point Enterprise.

Communications

Plan to Boom Greensboro.

The Chamber of Commerce is in receipt of the following letter from the Meyer's Company:

"Why not boom Greensboro?
"We are not asleep! We want to make Greensboro grow!"

"Why not be a booster?
$1,000.00 in cash and $100.00 each year to get in line for 1912. What Greensboro needs and what we want is the spirit of co-operation. Greensboro has efficient merchants and as good stores and better, than cities much larger than Greensboro, and lower prices than most cities in North Carolina, quality of goods considered. Now why shouldn't Greensboro's public spirited citizens start something by 1912 instead of talking it over on the street corners. We will be one of 100 to subscribe $1,000

in cash and thereafter $100 each year to start something worth while—a Realty Company or Investment Company (never mind the name). Stock to be issued for principal and for yearly assessment, assessments to accumulate as a surplus fund for a term of years to build factories to enable manufacturers to employ people in Greensboro.

"Every merchant, manufacturer,
lodge, club, association, real estate
owner who has houses or tenements to let, in fact every public-spirited citizen can well afford to invest $1,- 000.00 to start with and $100.00 each year for a term of years to be agreed upon later to build factories. These factories after a few years will pay a fair rate of interest on investment."

"We will agree to take stock in a company for $1,000.00 and agree to pay $100.00 yearly for stock for a term of years to be agreed upon if 99 others will agree to do the same."

"Surely there are hundreds in Greensboro who can well afford to go into this proposition. We will further agree to forget the dividends
for the privilege of doing something worth while."

"Yours for progress,
"THE MEYER'S CO."

The above proposition is based on business principles and if carried to a successful termination it means big things for Greensboro. All who will agree to subscribe the same amounts upon the same conditions as outlined in Mr. Meyer's letter, please notify the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

With this amount of money in hand
to be invested by a committee appointed from the 100 subscribers, we would be able to increase Greensboro's pay rolls thousands of dollars, which would mean more business and better business for every merchant
in the city.

The Chamber of Commerce trusts that this will appeal to the people of Greensboro, and we ask that you give it publicity in your paper.

Yours truly,
C. C. McLEAN,
Secretary.

Newspaper Circulators to Meet in Charlotte

Charlotte, June 12.—The circulation managers of the daily papers of the two Carolinas will meet in Charlotte Wednesday of this week to consider the wisdom of an organization, following the plan of other States. In all probability something like thirty papers will be represented and the Observer has tendered the use of the staff consultation room on the second floor of the Observer-Chronicle building for the place of meeting.

This organization is the result of the efforts of Mr. Sam Burritt, circulation manager of the Raleigh Evening Times, and he has given considerable time and service in corresponding with the various newspaper men
in order to bring about the meeting.

In a letter received from Mr. Burritt yesterday the following list of newspapers and their representatives is given, as those who will attend:

Durham Herald, J. C. Warren.
Greensboro News, W. S. Peace.
Greensboro Telegram, H. E. Oliver.
Spartanburg Post, H. M. Brown.

An Advanced Step.

High Point has taken an advanced step. An ordinance has just been passed by city council making it an offense, with a five dollar fine attachment, for any firm, or individual to offer for sale
within a radius of one mile of the city limits any fruit, berries, meat, etc., etc.,
not properly screened to keep out flies,
bugs, etc.

High Point believes in keeping down sickness rather than fighting it after it gets a foothold, and here that town has set an example which every city could follow with benefit.—Exchange.

Former Greensboro Man Was Drowned

Health Officer J. W. Donovan has returned from Martinsville, Va., where he was called on account of the death of his brother, George W.
Donovan, whose death occurred in Chillicothe, Ohio, on Sunday, June 4.
The funeral was held in Martinsville
on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Donovan with several others were bathing in the Scioto river when P. Nilsen, a foreman of the construction company with which the deceased was working, was seized with an attack of cramp. In attempting to rescue the man Mr. Donovan was drowned.

The deceased was 22 years of age
and for several years lived in Greensboro, being connected with the Greensboro Fire Department.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it's hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always proves a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c. at one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the pa-

CLARK EXPECTS AID FROM BRYAN

Missourian and Nebraskan Have Long Been Friends.

SERVED IN HOUSE TOGETHER.

Relations of the Two Men Interesting Now—Bryan's Action on Free Wool Was a Blow at Speaker's Presidential Prospects—Much Opposition to Proposed Parcels Post.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, June 12.—(Special).—Champ Clark was the only man to whom Bryan confided his determination to be nominated for president in 1890. This was some time before the national convention assembled. Bryan visited Clark for the purpose of talking over the situation with him. Clark was for "Silver Dick" Bland, a Missouri man, and, of course, could not promise Bryan any aid.

Bryan told Clark that Bland could not be nominated. Clark and Bryan had served together in the house and were close friends. They have remained friends ever since, and Clark has supported Bryan and most of his policies since Bryan became the leader of the party. Clark did not think Bryan could stampede the convention, and when Bryan told him he would be a candidate he was much surprised and thought Bryan was very optimistic and visionary.

Clark's Chances Hurt?
The relations of the two men from that time become interesting in view of the fact that Bryan can do much now either to make or mar Clark's presidential chances. The tendency of his first effort to influence the action of the Democratic house over which Clark presides would seem to injure Clark's prospects.

The speaker understood better than any other man that free wool was an impossibility in the Democratic house and assented to the program of the ways and means committee. Bryan's opposition to that program was distinctly a blow at Clark's presidential prospects.

Prospect For Parcels Post.
Democratic leaders shy at the suggestion of a parcels post system. It is a subject upon which they have many doubts, and they also know that country merchants and the express companies are making a vigorous war against the innovation.

The determination of Chairman Bourne of the senate postoffice committee to take up the subject in a businesslike manner indicates that something may be done at this congress. Last year when an attempt was made to provide parcels post on rural routes Senator Bailey knocked the provision out on a point of order. Other Democrats are known to be just as hostile as Bailey, and it is believed that there will be difficulty in gaining the enactment of a general parcels post law.

P. V. De Graw, fourth assistant postmaster general, who has been in charge of rural routes for many years, is a strong advocate of parcels post on rural routes. He says that such a system will earn at least $15,000,000 every year and perhaps double that amount. That will enable the establishment of one cent postage without taxing second class matter a higher rate.

He Can Talk.
When Senator Martin of Virginia was made minority leader the newspapers printed paragraphs to the effect that he did not talk in the senate. That evidently stirred him up, for he has demonstrated that he can talk when he wants to. He started in to make a few remarks recently, and he crowded an hour with a rapid flow of language. It is now definitely understood that the minority has not chosen a man who cannot cover a page of the Record. Still, Martin is away behind most of the senators, who can easily cover a dozen pages.

Chandler the Pioneer.
Former Senator Chandler as he departed for New Hampshire, as he said, to "spend the summer out of doors," remarked that he was the original and pioneer progressive Republican. He pointed out that years ago when the other Republicans were holding back and following the lead of men who have since become known as stand-patters he was leading a movement for the regulation of railroads and for the establishment of reforms which have since become popular.

Chandler was one of the most persistent fighters of railroads of his day in the senate. He was considered a radical by his fellow Republicans.

Will Make Him Popular.
"Roosevelt's war talk or belligerency or whatever you may call it will serve to make him popular in the country," remarked a member of the house. "While we talk peace and are making a great do about it just now we know that way down deep we have the war spirit and that we will be ready for another war in ten years."

"The war spirit becomes uppermost after about thirty years of peace, and if it was not for that war spirit we would begin to decay. Do you suppose that our people would sanction all this preparation for war if we were ready to settle all disputes by arbitration? As usual, Roosevelt has voiced the sentiment of the people."

SPLIT WIDENS IN THE SENATE.

Republicans In Higher Body Refuse to Make Up.

PROGRESSIVES IN MINORITY.

Conservatives of the Two Parties Control, and There Is Little Hope of Party Unity During the Present Congress—Petty Grafting to Be Shown by the Investigations.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, June 12.—(Special).—While the breach between the factions of the Republican party in the house may be in process of healing under the genial personality of Leader Mann and the softening of the asperities of Uncle Joe Cannon, the split of the factions in the senate has become more than a breach; it is a gulf and becomes wider. W. Murray Crane, the great peace-maker, has been working overtime in his efforts to make harmony the watchword, but he does not seem to be successful. He recently adopted the Alldrich tactics and has fixed things up with the Democrats so as to maintain the domination of the old leaders.

There was a time when the power of the "elder statesmen" was threatened by the alliance of progressives of both parties or by the Republican insurgents holding the balance of power and voting with the Democrats, but that is not likely during the present congress.

Progressives in the Minority.
The progressives are in the minority even when aided by the progressive element on the Democratic side. The dream of Senator Newlands of an alliance between the Democrats and the insurgents for a program of progressive policies has been shattered by the fact that there are more conservatives than progressives on the Democratic side.

When Joe Bailey was able to elect Martin of Virginia minority leader it developed that the conservative element in the Democratic party was in control. The conservatives of both sides united far outnumbered the progressives. As this situation develops the bad blood between the factions increases. The caustic words which regulars and progressives use toward each other show that there is little hope of party unity during the present congress.

A Mistaken Idea.
In this connection there has grown up a mistaken idea as to the senate situation. The people generally suppose that the insurgent wing of the Republicans can at any time unite with the Democrats and put through anything in the way of legislation or investigation, but such is not the case. More than half of the Democrats in the senate are as much opposed to the idea of the Republican insurgents as the most conservative stand pat regulars on the Republican side.

Petty Grafting.
"I do not suppose that these Democratic investigating committees are going to uncover any great amount of corruption in the departments," remarked a Republican, "but the worst feature of it is the development of petty grafting which will be found. Then there are the enormous salaries that have been paid favorites and payments to persons of money for unauthorized purposes."

"Our former president had an idea that anything he did was right because he had good intentions behind it, and as a result men were given big fees and appointed to places without any real authority of law. Then there are the luxurious methods of furnishing offices. Those are the mean little things that become prominent."

Bringing Pressure.
It will be interesting to note the effect of the pressure which President Taft is bringing to bear upon the opponents of Canadian reciprocity. Roosevelt always made the outside pressure effective. This was more especially the case in regard to Cuban reciprocity, when the opposition melted away like snow under the sun. No doubt the long continued hearings before the finance committee had the effect of strengthening the opposition, which caused President Taft to begin his counter campaign.

Those New Senators.
No longer need the new senator sit quietly in his seat for a year or more and content himself by saying, "Mr. President, I present a petition from the chamber of commerce of Podunk asking for a public building at that city." The new senator can "get in" whenever he feels like it.

There are eighteen new senators, and half of them have already taken part in the debates. They are Lea of Tennessee, Hitchcock of Nebraska, O'Gorman of New York, Polindexter of Washington, Pomerene of Ohio, Reed of Missouri, Williams of Mississippi, Works of California and Kenyon of Iowa.

They are ridiculed by some people for attempting to instruct the older senators, but that is not the intent of speeches in the senate. Occasionally speeches may be made for that purpose, but instruction usually follows a running debate when senators ask questions for information. But the set speeches are made for home consumption as often by the older senators as by the new men.

From the Greek.

Greeks call a city "polis." The fundamental, or root, of the word was "pol." The Aryan stock, from which Greek and Latin descended, had a way of emphasizing an idea by reduplicating; that is, by repeating the root syllable. So probably after the separation of the Greek from his Asiatic birthplace, the old parent stock reduplicated "pol" and made "polpol" of it, by which was meant one inhabitant of the city. That reduplicated word appears in Latin as "populus," meaning now all the citizens of a "polis." The Latin went out from the Aryan hive long after the Greeks. They carried "populus" with them, but left "polis" behind. The English descendant of the Aryan stock says "people" now instead of "populus," but almost keeps the original in "population." He keeps "polis" also, in the word "politics," which is easily seen by its etymology to be "the science of being a citizen."

SUGAR

Trust is Being Investigated by Committee From House.

Washington, June 12.—The star feature of the testimony of E. F. Atkins, vice president of the American Sugar Refining Company, before the "Sugar Trust" investigation committee of the House, was the statement that when the New England stockholders of the company obtained control in 1910 they discovered that H. O. Hevemer had maintained supremacy when he held only 2,000 shares of stock, valued at $200,000, of a total of $900,000,000 worth of stock. Atkins is so deaf that he has to use an elaborate telephone apparatus to hear the proceedings.

DAILY MARKET REPORTS

WEATHER FORECAST.

Western cotton belt, fair.
Eastern cotton belt, generally fair except North Carolina, where unsettled local showers will prevail.

First Cotton Sold.

Houston, Texas, June 12.—The year's first bale of cotton was sold here today for $2.05.84 per pound, the total weight being 493 pounds and the price $1,015. This was the highest price ever paid on the Houston exchange for a bale of cotton. S. Jesse Jones, who is not in the cotton business, was the successful bidder. He says he does not know yet what he will do with the cotton. He had three competitors until the $1,000 mark was reached, when the others dropped out.

The bale was carefully examined and pronounced to be entirely new cotton, classed as strict middling.

COTTON LETTER TO J. E. LATHAM.

New Orleans, La., June 12.—Map shows generally fair belt, except cloudy in central and northern Texas; no rain of consequence and there was none over Sunday. Temperatures are somewhat lower in Oklahoma and northwest Texas but continue very high elsewhere and have risen materially over the Eastern belt. Indications are for part cloudy and cloudy weather in the northwestern quarter of the belt; possibly a little precipitation caused by the cool wave, but no general relief is yet in sight. Generally fair and hot weather is indicated for the rest of the belt, except possibly some cloudiness and some precipitation in North Carolina. Few realize how serious the situation is and what the consequences will be if there is no moisture in the near future. A drought in July and August restricts the size of the plant and its production but it is not half as bad as when a drought occurs just after cotton is planted. The importance of this dry spell is due to the time at which it occurred. A large portion of the crop has not yet attained a size at which it can produce anything. Our market opened flat on old crops and continued rather idle on summer positions but new crops opened about 15 points higher and although there was considerable profit taking on the advance, the market took offerings with ease and prices worked as high as 13.65 for October.

Raleigh, June 12.—Governor Kitchin in this morning heard W. C. Feimster and L. C. Caldwell, attorneys, in the interest of the granting of a pardon for John Raider who has served seven months of a two year sentence from Catawba county, for burning a warehouse of a knitting mill at Newton. Raider made a statement as to the burning to the effect that he burned the place, but that he was hired to do so by his employer, Carpenter, who was afterwards acquitted. The warehouse was owned by Carpenter.

Governor Kitchin left this afternoon for Blacksburg, Va., where he will on Wednesday deliver the address for the commencement exercises of the Virginia Military Institute.

Adjutant General Leinster issued a commission today for Z. P. Smith, secretary of the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, promoting him from first lieutenant, Company B, Third Infantry, Raleigh, to captain in the ordnance department of the Third regiment.

A charter is issued for the University Supply Co., Chapel Hill, capital $20,000 authorized and $6,000 subscribed by W. C. Lloyd and others for mercantile business.

Chairman Franklin McNeill and Commissioner W. T. Lee, of the corporation commission, have gone to Lexington where they today heard citizens and the Southern Railway Company on the question of requiring the railroad company to construct an over pass in connection with street improvements. From Lexington they go to Rutherfordton to look into a contest over the question of providing a union station. Then they go on to Saluda for a session Thursday involving an effort on the part of citizens to have the location of the depot changed and have additional sidetrack facilities provided.

Col. W. L. DeWitt arrived from Franklin, Macon county, to enter the Soldiers' Home, having been paralyzed for a year or longer. He was a valiant Confederate soldier and was for a long while active and successful in business. However, long illness had so drained his resources as to necessitate his coming to the Soldiers' Home.

Chas. R. Boone, for several years vice-president and manager of the J. Rosengarten Co., clothiers and furnishers here, has retired from this corporation and purchased the Lumsden building on Fayetteville street, now occupied by the Five and Ten Cent store, and will open a clothing and furnishings store there. The price paid for the Lumsden building was $23,000.

Annual memorial services were held Sunday afternoon by the Odd Fellows of Raleigh in honor of Odd Fellows that died during the past year, these being W. H. Caudle, C. F. Lumsden, W. M. Russ, and A. A. Wood. The principal address was delivered by Governor W. W. Kitchin and the eulogy was by Past Master Willis G. Briggs, postmaster of Raleigh.

Sunday night there was an impressive service by the local division Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. This was at the First Baptist church. The sermon, the theme of which was "Fidelity," was by Dr. O'Kelly, the pastor. There was special music.

DR. KNIGHT ADDRESSES

THE Y. W. C. A. WORKERS Asheville, June 12.—The feature of yesterday's program at the Southern conference of the Y. W. C. A., was the address of Dr. Knight of Richmond, Va., to the missionary students. His subject was "Loyalty."

A vesper service was conducted on the lawn of the Normal and Collegiate Institute in the afternoon by Miss Augusta Brown, of New York City.

At the platform meeting today, Miss Welthy B. Honsinger, a returned Chinese Missionary, told of her labors in China.

A student volunteer meeting is also scheduled for this afternoon.

It is believed that all the delegates to this year's conference have arrived, bringing the total over four hundred.

A large list of speakers from various sections of the country, makes the program of the present meeting one of the strongest in the history of the conference.

SENDS DRUNKS TO CHURCH AND REMITS FINES

Special to Telegram.

Savannah, Ga., Mayor Davis, of Cordele, has announced that he will remit fines recently imposed on drunkards and, instead, sentence them to meet every Sunday morning at his office and go to church. He has sentenced one confirmed drunkard to attend church on ten consecutive Sundays. Since the mayor's announcement there has been a remarkable reformation among the drunks of the city.

SIX KILLED DURING ELECTRICAL STORMS AROUND NEW YORK

And Damage to Property Will Amount to Millions of Dollars—The Storms Worst Seen in New York in Years—Believed Worst is Over.

Special to Telegram.

New York June 12.—The most violent series of electrical storms that have occurred in over 25 years swept this section of the Atlantic coast, beginning on last Saturday. The storms have not yet entirely abated, but it is believed that the worst is over.

Six persons have been killed so far and a thousand missing, while the damage to property will be several millions of dollars. The Hudson river liner was driven aground 35 miles above Albany, causing a night of anxiety to the three hundred passengers. The streets of the city were flooded by the water from the Hudson.

The storm, incidentally, added about four billion gallons to the city's water supply. The torrential downpour has been a boon to the depleted reservoirs, ten days supply having been accumulated in the Croton water shed.

The lightning played a strange prank at Clason Point, on the sound, last night, striking a revolving ferris wheel. The big wheel carried several passengers, was thrown from its axis and stuck fast. The lightning blinded the passengers and there was a panic. Several attempts to leap from the wheel, but were restrained. The passengers were taken down on ladders rigged together. Several silk mills in Patterson, N. J., were unroofed. Streets were flooded in several New Jersey towns, trees uprooted and cellars filled with water.

$400 REWARD FOR SLAYER OF MRS. HILL

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 12.—Governor Kitchin announces a reward of $400 for the unknown murderer of Mrs. Jane Hill, of Lexington, whose lifeless body was found tied to the bedpost and gagged in her room at the home of her mother in Jamestown, Guilford county, last week. No clues are known to have been discovered.

There is also a reward of $150 for William Lawrence, colored, who is wanted in Halifax county for wife murder. This crime was committed May 27.

FUNERAL OF PROF. ALDERMAN HELD SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The funeral of Prof. W. F. Alderman was held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from West Market Street Methodist church, of which the deceased had for years been a consistent member. A large number of sorrowing friends were present to pay their last tribute of respect to all that remained of a Christian, God-fearing man. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The interment was made in Green Hill.

Revival at First Presbyterian Church

Revival services began at the First Presbyterian church Sunday and will continue through the week. Rev. McLees, of Chatham, Va., who is visiting in the city, is assisting the pastor, Rev. Melton Clark. Services are held each morning at 8 o'clock and each evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Last evening before a large congregation Rev. McLees preached from the text John 20:24. The minister held the entire attention of his congregation, speaking with unusual power. He told plain gospel truths that sank deep into the hearts of his hearers. Rev. McLees is regarded as one of the most powerful evangelists who has preached here in years. So deep was the spirituality of his sermon last night that scores remained to thank him the message that he had brought.

At Lindley Park.

Lindley Park is proving a popular place for those who desire to take a few breaths of pure country air on hot evenings. The amusements this year are far superior to those seen at this amusement resort during former seasons. The show last night, a 5-act musical comedy, was greatly enjoyed by all who braved the elements. The performers are players of ability and a goodly portion of the show is mirth provoking. The company will be here all the week with a change of program on Thursday night.

Women and Society

Reception in Charlotte.

The following cards have been issued:

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsey McNinch invite you to meet Miss Mary White Bingley Miss Ruth Groome Miss Huldah Groome on the evening of Tuesday June the thirteenth nineteen hundred eleven eight-thirty Hawthorn Lane.

Miss Bingley is from New York and the Misses Groome, who are sisters of Mrs. McNinch, are from Greensboro. Mr. and Mrs. McNinch have one of the prettiest and most artistic homes to be found around Charlotte. Tomorrow evening will be the first time that it has been thrown open formally to their friends, many of whom have been invited to meet their delightful guests.—Charlotte Observer.

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations readings as follows have been issued:

"Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Adams request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Nora Lucell, to George I. Saint Sing on Thursday evening, June twenty-second, nineteen hundred and eleven, at nine o'clock, at their home, 304 N. Ridge street, Danville, Va."

High Point Couple Wed Here.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. W. Long, Roland O. Lindsay and Miss Ida F. Gordon, both of High Point, were united in marriage. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay left for a bridal trip to Asheville. They will make their home in High Point, where both are quite popular.

Marriage at Stokesdale.

Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents at Stokesdale Miss Elvive Lemons and Buford Jones were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Squire J. A. Wilson in the presence of a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Both bride and groom are popular young people of the Stokesdale section and have many friends who will be interested to learn of their marriage.

Lawn Party Tonight.

The Little Mission Band of the First Reformed church will give a lawn party to-night at the home of Rev. Shuford Peeler, 360 West Lee street. Refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Marrow Entertains.

Miss Edith Marrow entertained most delightfully last evening at her home on Summit avenue in honor of Miss Frances Harry's house party. A large number of the younger set of the city were present to meet the young ladies who are Miss Harry's guests. During the evening seasonable refreshments were served.

Miss Nell and Master Julian White, who have been visiting relatives in the city returned yesterday to their home in Greenville, N. C.

Mission Meeting at Muir's Chapel

The Greensboro District meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at Muir's Chapel Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night, June 13 and 14. All adults and juvenile societies in the district are expected to send delegates. Delegates and visitors will write or phone Mrs. W. L. Dawson when they wish to be met at Lindley Park and conveyances will be on hand.

Good Power Service Promised For Today

The storm yesterday afternoon put the Southern Power Company out of business in Greensboro and for nearly two hours the street cars were tied up, as were all users of electric light. Last night the current went off a second time, but the boilers of the Public Service Company were steamed up and home-made current was turned on in about ten minutes.

Last night Manager Andrews called up The Telegram and requested the statement that steam would be kept in the boilers of the company all day today and users of power and patrons of the street cars need not fear a repetition of yesterday's occurrence, when the cars stood for two hours. With a full head of steam in the boilers it will take the company less than ten minutes to turn on local current should the transmission lines of the Southern Power Company be put out of business.

BARCALO
Security CRIB

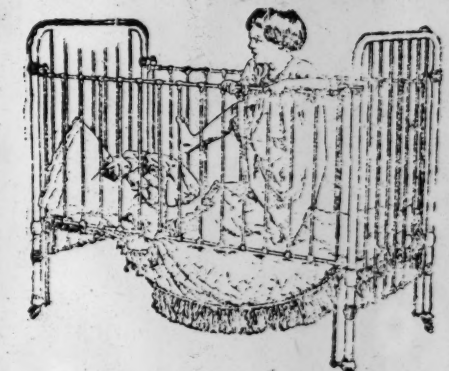

For Baby's Comfort and Safety

BARCALO SECURITY CRIB

Let the baby sleep in security and the mother may sleep in peace. Either side of the Barcalo Crib may be lowered so that the crib at night becomes practically a part of the mother's bed.

The sides and ends of the crib are so high baby cannot climb over them; the rods are so close together baby's head cannot go between them; they have no sharp points or castings to cause injury. Baby will learn to walk holding on to the strong upper bar.

The little boy regarded the pictures of the harem skirts with starting eyeballs.

"Does it mean that I am to have twice as many trousers cut down for me?" he shrieked.

Then he fell on his knees and prayed, as never before, that several sisters might be vouchsafed him in the future.

Doctor—You did right to call me in, dear lady.—London Opinion.

MILLIONS OF FOLKS USE ONLY 'CASCARETS'

They Never Have Headache, Biliousness, Sluggish, Inactive Bowels or a Bad Stomach to Make Them Miserable.

A million boxes a month. That's the sale of Cascarets. And every tablet in every box means a day of good cheer. Think what a world of happiness this candy laxative has brought to men and women—also the children. Are you getting your share?

Cascarets cure bowel troubles when they have developed. But that is the least of their uses. Their best service is to prevent the many ills that come from inactive bowels. Think of the days when you are not at your best. The mornings when you don't feel right, the afternoons when you are lousy, the evenings when you are irritable. The cause lies in the bowels.

One Cascaret makes everything different. Don't say "I'll take it to-night." Take it at once. Carry a box in your pocket. The hours before bedtime are too good to be wasted. Their action is as natural as the action of fruit on the bowels. They are sold by all druggists at 10 cents per box.

The News of Pleasant Garden. Pleasant Garden, June 12.—Mr. Eusebius McCulloch and his daughter, Maud, who had been to the State University, where the former's son, Edgar F. McCulloch, was graduated, stopped over in Pleasant Garden to see his mother and brother. They also visited relatives nearby and also in Greensboro.

E. F. McCulloch, who had been visiting here, returned last Saturday to his home in White Oak, Bladen county.

C. F. Neelley has moved back to his home in the country.

Prof. F. L. Poust's new house is being rapidly pushed to completion.

J. R. McCulloch is building a house for himself on what was once known as the "Watson lot."

Stacy Kirkman, who has been quite sick, is much improved, as is also little Thomas Tyson.

Miss Lynette Dorsett, of Farmer, is visiting Mrs. J. A. Sharpe.

Colored Laymen Meet Tonight. The colored laymen's meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 8.30 at Providence Baptist church. All the representatives are urged to be present.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

The Librarian's report for 1910-1911 shows an addition of 966 books and 2,700 pamphlets; 214 of these books and 2,300 pamphlets and four beautiful pictures were appreciated gifts of the year. The library now owns 6,319 books and 15,094 pamphlets in addition to its 1,017 volumes of unbound magazines and its loan collections—the latter covering 1,526 books and 472 pamphlets.

Attention is called to a very generous cash gift of $521.06, the result of a subscription for greatly needed children's books, secured in a canvas for this purpose by a number of public spirited gentlemen last October. This gift (which is now being expended for children's books) accounts for the unusual balance shown by the treasurer's report at the close of the year.

The circulation for the year was 17,948; 31 1-2 of this figure being children's books and 83 3-5 of the whole being fiction. With this circulation should be recorded the fact that the night circulation of books discontinued last year for economy of lights was for the same reason discontinued this year until December 21 and, therefore, only six weeks of this changed circulation was inaudited in the fiscal year ending February 4, 1911.

The adequate number of lights were again in use after December 21 through the kindness of a generous gift for this purpose from the N. C. Public Service company.

The reading room has in all 162 periodicals, 3 weekly and 8 daily papers—including 50 1-2 gifts. While the courteous cooperation of the city papers, which give free advertising and free papers for binding and reference use, should be mentioned here as typical of the public spirit of Greensboro. The item recorded as advertising in the treasurer's report means the price of papers and printing for advertising purposes and not the space accorded in the columns of our papers.

The reference department continues to show a steady and encouraging growth; 2,682 instances where aid has been given to students were recorded and a conservative estimate of the entire number is stated as 3,500. All classes of the library's books, clippings, pamphlets and magazine files are of service not only our own people, but many students from neighboring towns and schools. One interesting and very practical feature of the library service is seen in the use of the newspaper files now often in demand to establish questions of social, business and political importance.

This one fact, taken with the increasing use of the library's North Carolina collection, very clearly illustrates the twofold privilege of every public library to preserve history and "to serve the present age."

The report shows five lectures and 268 meetings in the library building within the year; of the latter the Boy's Exhibition and the Flag Day Exercises were conducted by the library management. The lectures and the remaining meetings were under the auspices of 17 different societies.

CLEARING SIDEWALKS IN WILMINGTON CITY

Merchants of City Not Allowed to Make Displays on Streets—Loafers May be Driven From Sidewalks—All Wires May be Put Under Ground.

Wilmington, June 12.—There is a strong probability that the city council will shortly give some consideration to the matter of requiring the telephone and telegraph companies to place their wires in the city underground and the Tidewater Power Company to provide a smaller and much neater pole for their trolley wires. It is likely that aggrieved merchants will carry the matter to the council. The merchants have nothing against the telephone, telegraph and electric companies, but they want these companies to be fed out of the same spoon as they themselves have been fed. Some time ago an ordinance was adopted prohibiting the use of the sidewalk for the display of fruits, vegetables, etc., and a few days ago the grocers and fruit dealers made complaint to the council that it was not right to enforce against them such an ordinance while the hardware men were allowed the privilege of displaying plows, etc., on the sidewalks, the clothing and gents' furnishers the privilege of placing an upright show case on the sidewalk, etc., with the result that an ordinance was passed to the effect that no obstruction whatever would be allowed henceforth on the sidewalks. The police were given orders to carry out to the letter the measure. A long petition was presented to the council from some of the merchants asking that they be allowed the use of the sidewalk as formerly, but the ordinance was not repealed because City Attorney McClammy advised that the city had no right to grant the use of sidewalks, as no provision for this is made in the charter. Although it was the desire of members of the council to repeal or modify the law they could do nothing in face of the opinion, so the police were again instructed to proceed with the rigid enforcement of the ordinance. This the police are doing, even to the extent of requiring barbers to remove their signs from the curbing in front of their places, and there is talk that guests of hotels will not be allowed to sit out in front of the hostleries in chairs. It is understood that merchants will likely urge the council to require the placing of wires of telephone and telegraph companies underground, thus getting rid of the unsightly wires and poles, and require the electric company to either place its trolley wires underground or provide a smaller and neater pole.

James H. Sprunt, who has been German consul for North Carolina, recently tendering his resignation, reluctantly accepted, has been advised officially that His Majesty, Kaiser William, of Germany, has bestowed upon him the decoration of the Prussian Crown.

Memorial service will be held Tuesday evening by the four local lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in memory of the members who have passed away during the past year. Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, will be the speaker of the occasion, and there will be a fine musical programme.

When the veterans of North Carolina gather in Wilmington on August 2nd and 3rd for their annual reunion they will have the time of their lives if the hope of the entertainment committee are realized. The plans for the gathering are being rapidly perfected and the finance committee which set out a few days ago to raise $2,000 for the entertainment of the visitors are meeting with success in their canvass. Arrangements will be made to take care of any veterans desiring to attend the reunion who may be unable to pay for their board and lodging. It is important that every camp in the State advise the local organization as to the number of its members expecting to be in attendance, especially those who expect accommodation gratis, in order that arrangements may be made to provide for them. Those who desire cheap boarding places while in the city may obtain them by writing the adjutant of Cape Fear Camp. The date for the reunion was selected by the local camp as August 2nd and 3rd because this is regarded as the best time of the year for the gathering, as the season for cultivating crops will be practically over by that time and many farmers will be able to attend who would be kept at home by

REVENUE OFFICERS SAY NEAR BEER MEN WILL VIOLATE LAW

Special to Telegram.

Raleigh, June 12.—Internal revenue officers say that the near beer dealers here and throughout the State for that matter, are preparing to take out liquor licenses again June 30, the plan being for their places to go right on after July 1, when the act of the last legislature prohibiting near beer saloons goes into effect all over the state. The leading dealers are free to admit that they do not expect to close out their business at all. They will take out the government license to relieve themselves from the surveillance of the revenue officers and then they will probably eliminate the beer idea. The liquid may, and will probably very much resemble beer say, but there will be no beer or near beer brands and the bottles will be different. The applications for renewal of government licenses are already coming in in anticipation of the expiration of the present licenses July 1. The change of the size of the bottles and the brands they bear, it is said, will constitute the principal changes that will take place in the near beer saloons and their service. The near beer men insist that they will comply with the law and they will be relieved of the state and local tax they have had to pay heretofore.

There is the most strenuous sort of a movement on foot to defeat the purpose of the building committee of the Young Men's Christian association from locating the building on the lot the committee purchased some days ago on the north side of Capital square between Halifax and Wilmington streets. The building would be between the handsome Vass and Williamson homes and the people of the whole neighborhood seem averse to having the Y. M. C. A. in their midst. The contest is attracting considerable attention. Some of those fighting most determinedly the present purpose of the committee as to location are men who reduced the most effective service in the campaign for the Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. Williamson, in fact, paid $2,000 toward the fund and headed one of the campaign committees in soliciting subscriptions.

ANY BRIDE SATISFIED HIM

In India, When the Groom's First Choice Balked, He Accepted a Volunteer.

The Youth's Companion recounts a story of a wedding described in Dr. Winifred Weston's "A Bluestocking in India."

"Yesterday I went to a native Christian wedding. Many guests had assembled and the ceremony had progressed to the point where Mr. Grey asked the bride:

"Do you take this man to love, cherish and obey?" when the young woman in the case responded with a surprising and unmistakable "No!"

"Mr. Grey labored with her in an undertone, but to no avail. The marriage had, as usual, been arranged by the parents without consulting the daughter. But it is almost an unknown thing for a girl to be so bold and disobedient. The situation was then explained to the assembled guests, and volunteers were asked to supply the vacancy. A young woman promptly came forward and the ceremony proceeded as if nothing had happened.

"Afterward the bride left the altar by different aisles to hold a reception under a tree, where congratulations and rice were poured upon them. The groom placed a silver ring upon the great toe of the bride's left foot, and a 'best man' tied the groom's neck scarf to the bride's flowing garment, and thus they sat in state for some hours."

their duties at another time. It is expected that the attendance will be unusually large this year and there will be many attractive features of the reunion.

Firemen's Memorial Day was observed in Wilmington Sunday by the local firemen, who sent a committee to the cemetery to decorate the graves of their departed comrades. Three members of the department have died since the organization of the paid department. The firemen also honored the memory of W. C. VonGlabn, who was secretary of the State Association at the time of his death, and in the days of the Wilmington fire department one of its bravest members.

Wilmington merchants are considering the matter of giving free round trip fares to Wilmington every day in the year to the out-of-town buyers who spend their money in this city with a view of greatly increasing the already large wholesale and retail business.

CONVICT ESCAPES FROM THE CITY CHAIN-GANG FORCE

John Young, a bad negro and one of the "charter members" of the Greensboro street improvement squad, made his escape from the city convict camp yesterday morning about 10 o'clock and straightway sought the most convenient refuge, which happened to be the dense thickets of Peabody Park, at the State Normal College. Although the police force has gone upon the trail of the fugitive, he has not yet been apprehended. The camp is in charge of Capt. McIver and one assistant. While the watchmen were off-guard for a moment the negro seized the opportunity, dived through a sewer ditch under a wire fence, and performed a successful dash for the park. The pursuit was not started before John had taken a good lead and his capture will be a matter of difficulty; for the escaped convict has a remarkable aversion to the company of the police and he further possesses a quantity of cunning and meanness combined that makes him a specially dangerous factor for the police to handle. At the time of his escape, the negro was serving a term of three months on the streets for resisting arrest recently when a warrant was issued for him on the charge of highway robbery. He is at present bound over to the Superior Court on two different charges for robbing negroes on the night of June 3.

PATRIOTS TOOK THE CONTEST YESTERDAY FROM GREENVILLE

By Score of Six to One Doyle's Bunch Captured First Game of Series From Spinners—Second of Series This Afternoon.

By a score of 6 to 1 the Patriots won the opening game of the series with Greenville. The second game of the series will be played at Cone park this afternoon and this will be the last game of the week on the home grounds. Doyle's men expect to make it two straights from Greenville, and Rube Eldridge says he is in shape to administer the same sort of medicine this afternoon that Dr. Walters did yesterday.

The Spinners were simply outclassed yesterday. Tony Walters was on the mound and in elegant form. Not a run was made until the ninth, when a man scored from second on Doyle's error in fumbling an easy grounder. Tony allowed only five hits and these were pretty well distributed. In the first inning he allowed two safeties, and it looked like the visitors might get a run, but the runners died on second and third.

The locals started their run getting in the first inning when Doyle singled and went to third on Fuller's hit, scoring on Clapp's sacrifice foul to left garden. In the fourth Doak and Corwin led off with singles. Lowman followed with a single and Doak scored when Jenkins missed Smith's throw of Lowman's bunt. Stewart grounded out to short, and then Tony himself came up and lined out a pretty single between third and short stop, scoring Corwin. Three more runs were added in the fifth, when Fuller singled, Clapp was safe on Kite's error, and Doak was given a walk to advance Fuller and Clapp and fill the bases. Corwin singled, scoring Fuller. Lowman grounded out to second, scoring Clapp. Stuart went out the same way but scored Doak. Walters struck out. With a total of six runs, the Patriots stopped their run-getting.

It was a fast snappy game, although checkered with too many errors. The pitching of Walters was the feature. Lowman, who was with the team early in the season, and who lives at Proximity, was in the game and has a couple of hits to his credit.

SPARTANBURG AND CHARLOTTE EACH TAKE A GAME

Spartanburg, S. C., June 12.—A double-header here broke even this afternoon, the Red Sox winning the first, 7 to 5 and losing the second, 6 to 2. Neither game was particularly exciting and the errors accounted for the result in each contest, Spartanburg's errors lost the second and Charlotte's errors lost the first. Home runs by Outfielders Wagon and Sopman for Spartanburg featured in the first. Topman came here from Jacksonville. In-fielder Hargrave's homer for the visitors featured the second.

ELECTRICIANS AND TWINS SPLIT EVEN IN DOUBLE-HEADER

Anderson, S. C., June 12.—The locals broke even in the double header played here this afternoon, losing the first to Winston, 8 to 1, and winning the second, 6 to 0. Stewart, in the first was invincible and could not be touched by the Electricians, except one home run by Outfielder Yount in the second inning. The visitors won the first game easily. Hayes who pitched the second for the locals made his debut with a no-hit game and his team mates had only one assist also. Hayes was turned loose
